Turkey is one of the most important states in the middle east region.
The thesis concentrates on the roles of turkey in the post – cold war age after we witness many vital role of turkey in cold war age because turkey was , and still , one of the member of NATO Alliances.