

University of Baghdad

College Name	Political Science
Department	International Studies
Full Name as written in Passport	Jasim Y MUHAMMED AL-HARARI
e-mail	Jasim_unis@yahoo.com
Career	<input type="radio"/> Assistant Lecturer	<input type="radio"/> Lecturer	<input checked="" type="radio"/> Assistant Professor <input type="radio"/> Professor
Research Title	Impact of political participation in the development of citizenship: a case study of the Gulf Cooperation Council countries
Shared or Single	<input type="radio"/> Shared name		<input checked="" type="radio"/> Single
Published Journal title	Journal of Arab Affairs
Volume Number	135
Page	197-217
Year	Fall 2008

Abstract

Began a series of developments in the political life in the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC), but did not reach yet a water shed can be which say that it reached the edges of the front of political participation that will be a motivation and Oazaaa for the development of citizenship in the Gulf citizen because of the number of internal and external factors, including the survival of nature tribal and patriarchal rulers region in the treatment of their community where it remains a sense of local need to swear allegiance to the ruling Abaattabarh chieftain, but spiritual father and charismatic them, although he had Aanzb to their tribe than to keep the phenomenon of hereditary from father to son and the brothers are continuing but this does not prevent the region's leaders to make some changes in the political life as happened in Kuwait and the Kingdom of Bahrain