

University of Baghdad

College Name	Political Science
Department	International Studies
Full Name as written in Passport	Basma Khaleel Namuq
e-mail	basma.auqaty@yahoo.com
Career	<input type="radio"/> Assistant Lecturer	<input checked="" type="radio"/> Lecturer	<input type="radio"/> Assistant Professor <input type="radio"/> Professor
Research Title	Stabile and Change in US strategy within 2008 presidential elections and its consequences on Iraq and Region.
Shared or Single	<input checked="" type="radio"/> Shared name	Saad AL-Saedy	<input type="radio"/> Single
Published Journal title	Information roll in Decision making process of foreign policy : Theoretical study
Volume Number	Publishing approved / Under edition
Page
Year	2011
Abstract	The study shows the centralized and distinct nature of decision making process In the comprehensive sense and emphasizes its permanent presence in the life of the individual and community , society and state in different patterns and forms and has indicated that the significant difference between: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1- Intake foreign policy decision making as a subject of analysis as by methodological model which give us ability to study various aspects of foreign policy and the elements affecting the formation it. 2- Intake it as a framework of an explanatory theory supports the importance of the role of personal decision-maker which is not what concerns us in our research this. The study shows clearly the significant great role of information in our lives, especially in a moments where is decision joints as indicated by the two scientists Tom Stonier and Alvin Toffler and as reflected by the facts and daily developments and the growing role of technology information.		