The search regards with a subject of the second Iraqi elections for governances which had been accrued in 2009. After introducing which deals with the administration history for the Iraqi governances, the search deals with the most problems in Iraqi governances such as: the problems from the previous regime, the administration and financial corruption, the violent and terrorism actions and other problems. Then, the conditions of elections, the low of elections and the competitive entities.

Finally, results and conclusions.