

University of Baghdad

| | | | |
|----------------------------------|---|---|---|
| College Name | Political Science | | |
| Department | Political Thought | | |
| Full Name as written in Passport | Fatimah Ridha Attia | | |
| e-mail | | | |
| Career | <input type="radio"/> Assistant Lecturer | <input checked="" type="radio"/> Lecturer | <input type="radio"/> Assistant Professor |
| | | | <input type="radio"/> Professor |
| Research Title | The search for power in C.P.Snow's The Light and the Dark. | | |
| Shared or Single | <input type="radio"/> Shared name | | <input checked="" type="radio"/> Single |
| Published Journal title | Alustath Journal | | |
| Volume Number | none | | |
| Page | | | |
| Year | 2011 | | |
| Abstract | Strangers and Brothers is a series of novels by C.P.Snow. The light and the Dark is the fourth novel in this series. It tackles one phase of the gifted scholar and remarkable individual Roy Calvert, and his inner turmoil and quest for a source of power and meaning in life. Calvert was based on Snow's friend, Charles Allbery. The novel exposes the message the character of Roy intends to convey in this phase and the prophecy the novel carries amid catastrophe so widespread in the 1930s. | | |